

Seasons of Life

In all of the seasons of life,
God, the Creator, gives us a song!

There is a song for the beginning of life's journey
and a song for going home.
God, the Creator, gives us a song!

There is a song for one voice
and a song for many voices.
God, the Creator, gives us a song!

There is a song for victory
and a song for defeat.
God, the Creator, gives us a song!

There is a song for times of plenty and a song for times of want.
God, the Creator, gives us a song!

There is a song for mourning
and a song for celebration.

*In all of the seasons of life,
God, the Creator, gives us a song!*
